REPORT ON THE SPEECH: THE IMPACT OF UNEMPLOYMENT IN MY COMMUNITY

1. Title of Speech and Date
Speech Title: _The Impact of Unemployment in my Community_
Date Delivered: 4 May 2026
Venue: eDumbe High School Hall
2. Purpose of the Speech
The purpose of the speech was to inform Grade 10-12 learners and unemployed youth about the negative effects of unemployment in eDumbe. It also aimed to persuade the audience to take positive action by developing skills, applying to TVET colleges, and using youth programmes like YES, instead of waiting for employment.
3. Target Audience
The target audience was Grade 10-12 learners aged 15-18 and unemployed youth in eDumbe, KwaZulu-Natal. This group was chosen because they are at a critical stage of making decisions about their future after school.
4. Structure and Content of the Speech*
The speech followed a clear structure to ensure logical development and unity:
•Introduction:Defined unemployment and showed that it is a local problem affecting many homes.
2.Body:Presented three main points using signposts for coherence:
Firstly:Unemployment leads to poverty and financial struggle.
Secondly: It causes crime and hopelessness.

Thirdly: It wastes the talent and potential of youth.
However: Solutions were provided, including skills training, TVET applications, YES, and small business. Research data from the Department of Higher Education was used to support the argument.
3.Conclusion: Ended with a strong call to action: “Let us not wait for jobs. Let us create them.”
5. Language and Style
The language was formal but simple enough for learners to understand. Offensive or negative language was avoided. Paragraph conventions, linking words, and cohesion were used to keep the speech flowing. Grammar, diction, and sentence structure were controlled throughout.
6. Effectiveness of the Speech
The speech was effective because:
• It was relevant to the audience’s real-life situation in eDumbe.
• The logical sequencing made it easy to follow.
• The use of research and local examples made the arguments sound and convincing.
•The conclusion was clear and motivational.
7. Challenges Experienced During Delivery
○Nervousness: Speaking to a large audience caused initial anxiety.
○Time Management: Keeping within the 5-minute limit was difficult during practice.
○Audience Engagement: Some learners were distracted at the start.
8. Lessons Learned and Recommendations
°Lessons Learned:Practice reduces nervousness. Using local examples increases audience interest.

°Rcommendations:For future speeches, I recommend rehearsing with a timer, using a visual aid, and starting with a question to gain attention.
9. Conclusion
In conclusion, the speech achieved its purpose. It raised awareness about unemployment and encouraged the youth to take responsibility for their future through skills and action.
