Fikile Mkhize 0210210785080

0781087624

ENGAGE IN SUSTAINED ORAL/SIGNED COMMUNICATION AND EVALUATR SPOKEN/SIGNED TEXTS

US119462

A. FORMATIVE ASSESSMENT

Question 1

Margaret assumess that Don is responsible and will handle the reports himself without being disturbed, even though he is sick.

She believes he will "find a way to get those reports to you on time" and that he "shouldn't be disturbed" because he needs to rest. She trusts his professionalism over immediate action.

Question 2

a)1. First person point of view - "I, me, we". Speaker talks from personal experience. Makes communication personal and direct.

2.Second person point of view- "You, your". Speaker addresses the listener directly. Makes communication interactive and engaging.

3. Third person point of view- "He, she, they". Speaker talks about others objectively. Used for reporting or formal communication.

b) Values: Core beliefs about what is right/wrong/important. _Influence_: They shape tone, word choice, and what topics we emphasize or avoid.

Attitudes: Feelings or opinions toward people, topics, or situations. _Influence_: They affect voice tone, body language, and how positively/negatively the message is received.

Assumptions: Beliefs we take for granted without proof. _Influence_: They can cause misunderstandings if the listener doesn't share the same assumptions

Question 3

a) 1. Passive voice- "Mistakes were made" instead of "I made mistakes"

2. Blaming others-"It was the team's fault"

3. Vague language- "Someone should have..."

4. Humor/jokes to downplay the issue

5. Changing the subject or giving excuses

6. Minimizing- "It was just a small thing"

7. Using "we" instead of "I" to spread blame

b)A presenter must clarify purpose so the audience knows what to expect and why they should listen.It

Fikile Mkhize 0210210785080

US119462

helps focus attention, guides understanding, and ensures the message achieves the goal of informing, motivating, influencing or entertaining.

c)1. Content- relevance, accuracy, organization

2. Delivery-voice, pace, clarity, confidence

3. Body language - eye contact, gestures, posture

4. Audience engagement- interaction, questions, relevance to audience

5. Use of visual aids/media

6. Time management

7. Language and tone - appropriate register

8. Conclusion-summary and closing impact